1. About the Placement Test for Hokkaido University's General Japanese Course

- The Placement Test uses the TTBJ.
The results are used to determine your Japanese language level.
- Please take the TTBJ on your own during the designated period.
- Please be sure to save your TTBJ score report.
- When registering for the Japanese Course, enter your score and select the class that corresponds to your level.

Note:

- If you are studying Japanese for the first time, you do not need to take the Placement Test. Please register for Introductory 1 level class.
- If you have previously taken the General Japanese Course at Hokkaido University, you do not need to take the Placement Test. Your level will be determined based on your past course record.

2.1 Important Notes for Taking the TTBJ

- Test duration: Approximately 30-60 minutes.
*Please note that some students may finish earlier, while others may require more.
- Environment: Please take the test in a location with a stable internet connection.
- Device: Taking the test on a PC is recommended.
*You may also take the test using a tablet or smartphone.

2.2 Procedures for Taking the TTBJ

Click “Test application” on the individual TTBJ Test page to begin your application

TTBJ's individual page

<https://ttbj.cegloc.tsukuba.ac.jp/p1.html>

The TTBJ logo is prominently displayed in purple. Below it, the text reads "TSUKUBA TEST - BATTERY OF JAPANESE". To the right of the logo is an illustration of a diverse group of people. The text below the logo states: "TTBJ is a collection of tests developed by the International Student Center at the University of Tsukuba." It then lists three bullet points: "• TTBJ allows the test proctor to identify the Japanese proficiency of multiple learners.", "• you can also identify your Japanese proficiency by yourself.", and "• TTBJ is for free." To the right of these bullet points, there is Japanese text: "Webで日本語能力を測ってみませんか? どなたでも無料でお使いになれます。" and the University of Tsukuba logo with the name "筑波大学 University of Tsukuba".
